

SKIN SUMMER SCHOOL

12°
EDITION

17 - 19 JUNE 2024, PAVIA

Conference President: Prof. Paola Perugini , PhD

Unlock the future of sustainable cosmetics with a focus on safety and efficacy

The emerging cosmetic trends underscore the importance of valuable and safe sustainable ingredients, proven product efficacy, and the concept of simplicity, prioritizing quality and functionality over other attributes.

The 3-day international school, an integral part of Cosmetological Sciences Master's program at the University of Pavia, stands at the forefront of this dynamic scenario, serving as a hub for influential speakers and a platform for in-depth discussion among professionals, researchers, students.

Discover more about the current state of sustainable cosmetics, innovations in ingredients, advancement in assessments, and sustainable processes.
